

Theatre To Think About

2018
2019

SEASON

Indecent – Co-Production with GableStage

by Paula Vogel

October 19 - November 11, 2018

This spellbinding drama with music explores the firestorm surrounding the 1923 Broadway premiere of Sholem Asch's God of Vengeance, and pays heartfelt tribute to the people that brought it to life.

House on Fire – World Premiere

by Lyle Kessler

December 7 - December 30, 2018

As an old man and his sons battle for dominance, two strangers appear and lives are changed in this moving and funny parable of love, resentment, family, and redemption.

The Spitfire Grill

Book and Music by James Valcq | Book and Lyrics by Fred Alley

February 1 - February 24, 2019

In this spirited and uplifting folk musical, a young parolee starts her life anew in Gilead, Wisconsin, and the moribund town begins to awaken with her.

Fences

by August Wilson

March 29 - April 21, 2019

Denied a shot at the major leagues because of the color of his skin, an embittered sanitation worker fractures family relationships and thwarts dreams in this Pulitzer Prize-winning drama.

The House of Blue Leaves

by John Guare

May 17 - June 2, 2019

An untalented songwriter hopes a blessing from the Pope will help him achieve his Hollywood dream in this surrealistic, heartbreaking and hilarious Obie Award-winning play.

Titles and dates subject to change

Subscriptions On Sale Now!

561.514.4042 | palmbeachdramaworks.org