Help protect our children!

Palm Beach Dramaworks and The Kravis Center are collaborating on a special September performance event created specifically for SDPBC PTA/PTSAs and school administrators.

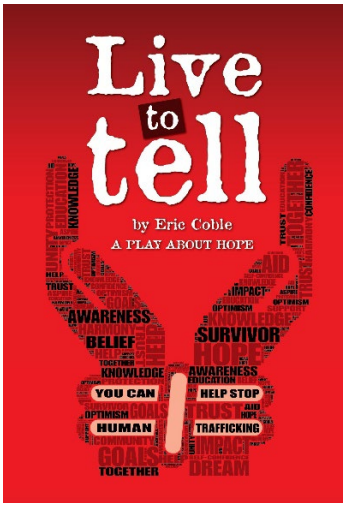
Live to Tell by Eric Coble. A Play About Hope
September 11, 2025: 7pm to 8pm

- The Kravis Center – Persson Hall
- Performance Length: 35 minutes + Discussion
- No cost to attend
- Seating is limited

Live to Tell by Eric Coble is a powerful and vital play centered on teen human trafficking prevention. South Florida is the third largest region in the nation for teen human trafficking, and the average age of trafficked children in our community is 13. It is vital that parents are fully involved and educated about what is happening right here in Palm Beach County. Immediately following the play, and in partnership with the Human Trafficking Coalition of the Palm Beaches, there is a discussion about keeping our children safe from predators, both online and in the community.

To reserve your seats or for more information, please contact:


Gary Cadwallader, PBD Director of Education and Community Engagement
gcadwallader@palmbeachsdramaworks.org
561-514-4042, ext. 123