

Palm Beach Dramaworks and The Kravis Center are collaborating on a special September learning event created specifically for SDPBC BHPs and school administrators.

Live to Tell by Eric Coble. A Play About Hope

September 10, 2025: 11:00am to 2:00pm

- The Kravis Center – Persson Hall
- Performance Length: 35 minutes
- Suggested Curricula: SLL (Skills for Learning & Life); Relationship Skills, Responsible Decision-making, Self-awareness, Self-management, Social Awareness
- No cost to attend
- Seating is limited

The event begins with a performance of Live to Tell by Eric Coble, a powerful play centered on teen human trafficking prevention and internet safety. South Florida is the third largest region in the nation for teen human trafficking, and the average age of trafficked children in our community is 13. This engaging performance is followed by lunch and a conversation with human trafficking prevention professionals who emphasize warning signs and give BHPs and administrators tools for protecting children. Live to Tell was created with assistance from the Palm Beach Sheriff's Office Human Trafficking Task Force, the West Palm Beach Police Department SVU, The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, and the Human Trafficking Coalition of the Palm Beaches.

To reserve your seats or for more information, please contact:

Gary Cadwallader, PBD Director of Education and Community Engagement

gcadwallader@palmbeachsdramaworks.org

561-514-4042, ext. 123

